Why: The Kodiak has now flown over 250 hours since October 16, 04 and to date is meeting our design expectations. The Kodiak flew to Anchorage as a featured attraction at the Alaska Trade Show in May and also to the EAA Oshkosh Air Show in July to begin our Commercial Sales Program. We already have 15 commercial sales and 18 mission Kodiak Orders. We anticipate FAA Certification and full production beginning next Spring.

Who: You are invited to come and be part of what God is doing to establish this amazing and crucial endeavor that will expand God's Kingdom through missions –worldwide –for many decades to come.

Please let us know if you're coming
