Dear Praying and Supporting Friends, The FAA Type Certificate Is In Hand!! ~ PTL! Aug. 2007

*The Kodiak is now fully approved by the FAA
...Bruce R. Kennedy also stands perfect before God*

These are days of profound sorrow as well as rejoicing. Bruce Kennedy, Quest Board Chairman and former CEO of Alaska Airlines, lived long enough to see the Quest vision fully approved by the FAA. Bruce passed away on June 28th in a landing mishap with his Cessna 182.

The first FAA certified Kodiak debuts at Oshkosh

Bruce R. Kennedy Bruce is now in heaven to welcome us and those from the uttermost regions who will join him because Kodiaks will soon bring missionaries and national pastors to provide help, healing, hope and the gift that is eternal. We can only imagine the great rejoicing going on in heaven over all of this.....

This picture was published in the August issue of Alaska Airlines' magazine. Mr. Bill Ayer, Alaska's Chairman and CEO dedicated several pages to Bruce and his leadership at Alaska Airlines as CEO and his more recent leadership as the Quest Aircraft Board Chairman. In the article Mr. Ayer stated that; - "Alaska Air Group is matching contributions from its employees, retirees and the public in Bruce Kennedy's memory to go toward the purchase of a Quest Aircraft for a humanitarian organization. If you would like to make a donation, send a check payable to NCCF/Quest Aircraft Memorial Fund (with "Bruce Kennedy Memorial Fund" in the memo line) to: Northwest Christian Community Foundation, 7730 S.W. 31st Avenue, Portland, OR 97219."

We invite you to take advantage of this generous offer and tremendous opportunity to help Quest and missions. Even though we have the FAA Type Certificate, we will not become "cash-positive" until we deliver two Kodiaks per month. Please help us reach that milestone very soon to become self-funding.

We are planning a very special Quest Open House Celebration at Sandpoint, Idaho on October 18th from 10:00-2:00pm. Please RSVP to me so we know how many to expect. Our missionary partners will be there that day as well. If you are not receiving the Quest e-mail Updates, contact me by e-mail and I will be glad to add you to the list.

To God be the glory, great things He has done!

Quest Open House Celebration is Oct 18th.
Come praise God with us for all He has done!
